

Figure 1-6 The allowed frequencies in a three-dimensional cavity in the form of a cube of edge length  $a$  are determined by three indices  $n_x$ ,  $n_y$ ,  $n_z$ , which can each assume only integral values. For clarity, only a few of the very many points corresponding to sets of these indices are shown.