

Figure 11-5 The measured specific heat at constant volume, as a function of temperature, for several materials. Horizontal line I represents the Dulong-Petit law, and curve II represents the predictions of the Debye theory.