

Figure 1-6 The allowed frequencies in a three-dimensional cavity in the form of a cube of edge length a are determined by three indices n_x , n_y , n_z , which can each assume only integral values. For clarity, only a few of the very many points corresponding to sets of these indices are shown.